Jilbab Design Competition

PARTNER PACK

Let your creativity flow...Get 'StyleIn!'

We all know that the Muslims from California to Kuala Lumpur are brimming with talent, creativity and energy. So Silk Route is back on the search for that special someone who can fuse Modesty with Fashion flare and create an iconic Jilbab/Abaya design for our sensational spring collection...and we want you to join us :)

Back in 2007 Silk Route made its mark on the Muslim Fashion scene with a UK design competition that 'Viralled' into a global phenomenon. Silk Route's design competition created an engaging and fun platform where over 100 exciting designs were submitted and over 60,000 people took part by voting, commenting and sharing. Remember this was all before the explosion of online social networking sites like Facebook, Twitter and You Tube :)

This time round we want it to be truly global with designers submitting in their 1000s and people voting in their 100s of thousands. Look who we already have on board:

A leading online fashion store with presence in Europe, North America, Africa, Middle East and South East Asia.

Jilbab Design Competition

The marketing geeks and gurus at Silk Route have taken inspiration from some of the most successful TV talents shows from around the world to create a design competition that will keep designers, voters, supporters and fans engaged through-out the whole process.

Some exciting features we are looking to include:

Weekly Elimination: Will make sure that the submitters will rally all their friends, families and contacts to vote and keep them in with a winning chance, also helps to sieve out the best from the rest.

Nation badges: Each designer can choose to be identified from a certain country/nation and rally their countrymen/women to support them

Sponsor/Support a winner: As a partner you or one of your fashion conscious friends can submit their design and you can visually back them (with your logo) all the way to the finish line :)

The vibe of the competition is one that appeals to the professional as well as the amateur designer and the prizes for the top 3 designs are absolutely AMAZING!!!
